the Cafe de Diet yesterday. At the noon luncheon the Gallant Thirteen, who are cating their way to fame and extra weight at 25 cents a day, carvey unbesitatingly into the very heart of a salmon croquette. There was not even the suspicion of a breath of discontent. The rockie boys trooped out harpily, and all afternoon, at their studies and exercises in the training school, thought care-less in the care-less o cless in the training school, thought care-lessly and favorably of the evening's prospect for a large baked fish.

Jects, adventure, fancy—these the mod-ern school proposes to utilize and de-velon in their natural season.

Perkins a Guest.

Idancheen yesterday was made locally famous by the presence of George W. Perkins and Police Commissioner Woode. Mr. Perkins expressed unusual interest in the diet experiment, and spoke to the in the diet experiment, and spoke to the clay.

"No better public service could be performed than to teach the public to est seconomically and well." Mr. Perkins said. "Girls leave school at the age of 14. so to work, and in four or five years are married. Most of them take up their bousehold duties without any preparation, and it would be a splendid work to teach them how to buy food, how to teach them how to prepare it. This test illustrates all of these points."

Commissioner Woods is greatly pleased with the results of the experiment, and spoke to the site of the entry that the purpose of developing fasts, interest and appreciation. We hope to train persons not to write poems but to care vitally for poetry.

"As for the study of languages, educated man who do not know French and German usually come to regret it keenly.
